

Instructions for Viewing Linked Commitments

For the smoothest navigation results in viewing your Linked Commitment, please follow the steps below:

- Your Linked Commitment is in PDF format, and can be viewed or printed with Adobe Acrobat Reader™. For best results, we recommend that you download the most recent version of this program free from Adobe.

For best results, instructions for opening outside of your email:

- Open the email attachment containing the Linked Commitment. Right click on the attachment, and save it to a known location on your computer.
- If possible, close out of all other currently opened browser applications on your PC.
- Locate the file where you just saved the Linked Commitment document in your computer. Right click on the file's icon, go to "Open With," and choose an internet browser such as Internet Explorer for opening the document.

Alternate instructions for opening within your email program:

- You may get a security warning. This is standard precaution, and should really be no cause for alarm.
- If you are prompted with a choice to open in an internet browser rather than Adobe Acrobat, this is definitely the best option.

You should be able to view the hyperlinks smoothly using the above instructions. However, we have no control over the settings in your computer, there are several issues that can occur, but may be easily fixable.
